 - Schedule for the week

This Total Body Transformation package is the ultimate package catered to a group of individuals looking to achieve optimal health. This package consists of 12 sessions in a period of 90 days. 1 session is done each week. This is not a diet but a plan to transform your lifestyle. We all know that our everyday lives get very hectic from time to time. Making ends meet with working, or if you have kids, then there is the balance between health and your life.

This program was designed for a group of individuals who are looking to make a change, find that balance while looking to achieve the optimal health. Even though this will be in a group it will still be catered to each individual person. Each session is 45 minutes to one hour long. Taking care of your health is important, and a lot of times we tend to get distracted over the little things. But sometimes those little things are minor adjustments that you would only need to look and feel your best self. We are all destined for greatness and proper nutrition with diet and exercise may not be the only way, its learning how to make it into a lifestyle to support you in fitting into your schedule.
